COURSE CONTENT

The units of competency for the program are:

- Carry out trip preparation and planning,
- Safely operate a mechanically powered recreational boat,
- Respond to boating emergencies and incidents.

They provide the recreational vessel and/or PWC operator knowledge of:

- basic understanding of waterway rules
- awareness of boating safety
- safe use of waterways
- relevant local knowledge
- safe operation on water

ASSESSMENT

THE LEARNING PROFESSIONALS has been provided with test papers for the Marine licence and the PWC endorsement by the Marine Licencing Authority.

The tests consist of the following:

- Four versions of the Marine Licence test,
- Four versions of the PWC test,

If you wish to practice before commencing the test, these test can be found at <http://transportsafety.vic.gov.au/maritime-safety/recreational-vessel-operators/powerboat/licensing/online-practice-test-for-the-victorian-marine-licence>

L P Communication must use the TSV test provided.

- The test must be administered as a closed book exam.
- Students must always be supervised during the test.
- Each participant must complete his/her test in isolation from other course participants, without discussion or interaction
- Where a participant identifies they have reduced language, literacy and numeracy skills, the assessor may read the assessment questions to the participant and record their answer.
- The PWC Test must be administered as a separate test to the Marine Licence test.

The instructor must score each test individually using the answer sheet provided. Successful applicants are required to attain a minimum score of:

- Marine Vessel - 26 correct question out of a possible 30, or
- PWC - 13 correct questions out of a possible 15.

RE ASSESSMENT OR RE-SITTING THE TEST

Where an applicant is not successful in attaining the required number of correct questions, they may be given the option to attempt a different version of the test. This may be attempted immediately following the first attempt.

Where an applicant is not successful on the second attempt, they may not attempt the test again on the same day. The applicant will have the opportunity to practice the tests located at <http://transportsafety.vic.gov.au/maritime-safety/recreational-vessel-operators/powerboat/licensing/online-practice-test-for-the-victorian-marine-licence>

When they are ready to re sit the test, they can contact their assessor to determine a time that is mutually agreeable by both parties, preferable during the next booking of group assessments.

EVIDENCE OF IDENTITY DOCUMENTS

MEDICAL CONDITIONS

Applicants should note that they will be required to meet the health requirements for operating a car, motorcycle or boat to gain their licence and this may include further testing where appropriate.

PRIVACY STATEMENT

This privacy statement applies only to recreational boat operator training and assessment services provided by accredited training providers (ATP) who have been granted ATP accreditation by the Director, Transport Safety to provide those services.

THE LEARNING PROFESSIONALS is committed to protecting personal and sensitive information consistent with the principles set out in the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014 (Vic), and, if applicable, the principles set out in the Privacy Act 1998 (Cth), and any other privacy law.

Personal Information

Personal information is information about you whether fact or opinion from which your identity could reasonably be ascertained.

Use and Disclosure of Personal Information

THE LEARNING PROFESSIONALS requests you to provide personal information for the purpose of allowing THE LEARNING PROFESSIONALS to provide recreational boat operator training and assessment services to you and for the Director, Transport Safety to manage or administer accredited training providers and undertake the functions relating to Marine Licences, or as required by law in regard to the Director's statutory obligations. THE LEARNING PROFESSIONALS is required to protect and handle your personal information in accordance with the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014 (Vic). Personal information that is collected by THE LEARNING PROFESSIONALS may also be used and disclosed to government agencies, departments and organisations (for example, Transport Safety Victoria or VicRoads), and to contractors whose duties require them to use it, in connection with managing or administering accredited training providers and undertaking functions relating to recreational boat operator licenses. Such agencies, departments and organisations are required to protect and handle your personal information in accordance with the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014 (Vic) or interstate privacy legislation.

Your personal information will not be used for training other persons. All persons and companies referred to in any examples in training materials provided by your accredited training provider are purely fictitious and any resemblance to existing persons or companies is purely coincidental.

Data Quality

THE LEARNING PROFESSIONALS will seek wherever possible to ensure that the personal information it collects, uses or discloses is accurate, complete and up to date. In many instances THE LEARNING PROFESSIONALS relies upon you to provide accurate and complete information and to advise THE LEARNING PROFESSIONALS should your circumstances change over time.

Data Security

THE LEARNING PROFESSIONALS takes all reasonable steps to protect your personal information from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure and securely destroys or de-identifies personal information when it is no longer needed.

Transfer of Information Interstate

Government agencies, departments and organisations rarely transfer personally identifying information to organisations outside the state of Victoria, however this may occur in some circumstances where required or permitted by law. If transferred the information is afforded a substantially similar level of privacy protection it would receive in Victoria.

Access and Correction

You have a right of access to and correction of information about you. You may gain access to information about you that is held by THE LEARNING PROFESSIONALS by contacting:

Joanne Cornelius, THE LEARNING PROFESSIONALS admin@thelearningprofessionals.com.au

You may have your personal information corrected with authentication and proof (where legislation does not prohibit correction) or a note of dissension from an opinion or view may be attached to a file where this is possible.

Unique Identifiers

A unique identifier is a code consisting of alphabet characters and numerals (not the individual's name) that is applied to an individual, for example a driver's licence number. THE LEARNING PROFESSIONALS does not assign, use or disclose unique identifiers to individuals unless it is necessary to do so to carry out one of its organisational functions efficiently and does not adopt an identifier assigned to an individual by another organisation for another purpose. Each certificate of attainment issued by THE LEARNING PROFESSIONALS on behalf of Transport Safety Victoria will have a unique certificate number that will be assigned to you.

Complaints and Appeals

If you consider that your privacy has been breached or interfered or you wish to appeal an assessment decision, you can make a complaint by contacting: Joanne Cornelius, THE LEARNING PROFESSIONALS, admin@thelearningprofessionals.com.au

Your complaint/appeal will be addressed within 48 hours, you will be contacted by THE LEARNING PROFESSIONALS, ensuring both parties will converse to gain agreement on a mutual and just process to meet the outcome that is agreeable for both parties. If this is unattainable then an independent third party will be introduced to mediate action requirements that would be required by both parties in an attempt to solve the issue at hand. All meetings and conversations will be documented and recorded to ensure transparency for all stakeholders involved.
